EDITORIAL

The sequence of the season never changes, and so does the sequence of life. The young, whose next order in the sequence is to grow, keep growing into a fine blossom. Indeed, The Sun of Sunnydale School is growing.

This edition offers real glamour and style_ immense thanks to our colleagues and other contributors, without whom this 'sunny beauty', will not be in your hands at this time.

The Sunnydale family is stronger than ever, as you will see within these pages. Learning, fun, play, socialising, integrating, and everything keep getting better_ our hearts shout out praises to the Most High. And while one part of us celebrates, another part pauses to remember, with assurance that they are somewhere better, our departed rare gems. May the Almighty's everlasting consolation remain with the families, friends, and folks left behind.

But hey, brighten up! It's not entirely bad. Brighter light beckons at the other end. Feel free to consume, voraciously if you so wish to do, the dainties within these exquisite pages of The Sun.

Catch yak!

DIRECTORS

It is true what they say: "No dream is ever too small; no dream is ever too big." I dreamt of an understanding, yet affordable educational institution and here I am living my dream. Isn't GOD great?

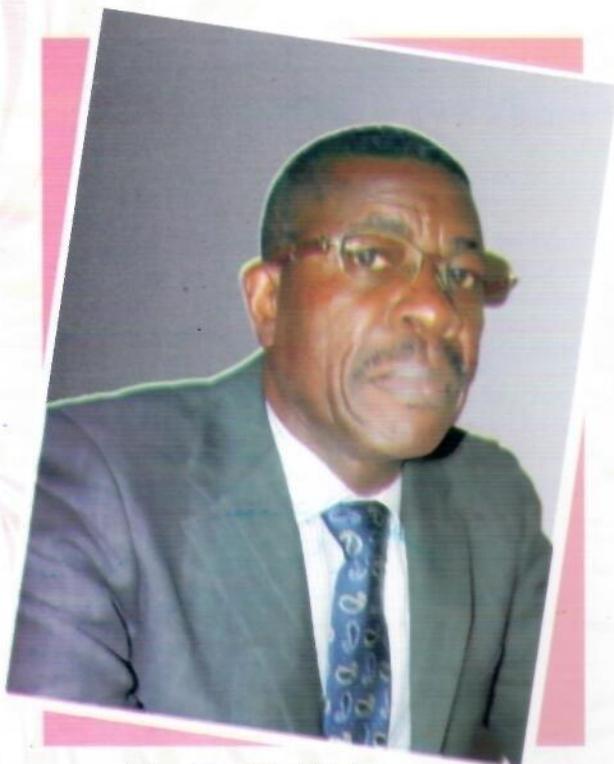

This session was somewhat clouded by the loss of Mr. Jacob Ashaolu (our Finance Manager & so much more) and Mr. Idara Bassey (our parent). Our consolation is the fact that they're in a better place.

In this year book, we have a few of the activities in which the children participated during the cause of the session; they have enjoyed their learning experiences.

Parents have been supportive of both the school and their children; thanks & kudos.

Let's keep reinforcing good academic and psychosocial traits. Now, lets' read through this edition and learn a little from the children.

... and so another year has whizzed by! Wow! It just blows my mind to think of all the things that the session has encompassed. In the words of Louise Pasteur “when I approach a child, (s)he inspires in me two sentiments; tenderness for what (s)he is, and respect for what (s)he may become.”

We started this session with a full crew but we're berthing this ship less two; may their souls rest in perfect peace

Here's another yearbook with snippets of our voyage; if we'd tried to put more stuff into it, it'd be a tome!

Enjoy the souvenirs showcased within as we bid “adieu” to this our 14th session.

I remember my first day in this “supercalifragilisticexpialidocious” school. I remember my 3rd Grade, it was tedious. I thought Year Four was going to be easier, but the boy was wrong! It's best expressed in a poem.

Year 3 was a bundle,
Four was so much trouble,
Five was a puzzle,
Six was unfathomable.

As the poem depicts, Year Four was a trouble, it was like a time bomb ready to explode. Year five changed my life and Year Six fortified my foundation with the help of Mrs.
Fakoya and some other incredible people.

In all, I have God to thank. Now look at me, leaving this great school! I will miss everything about Sunnydale School.

Is this really the end of my primary school or what? These years and months just seem to me like one day.

Anyway, to me, sunnydale is the most "supercalifragilisticespialidocious" School I have ever attended; first I started off in year 1 which encouraged me, Year 2 was pretty much fun and I was well educated just like Year 3. But my favourite classes were Years 4, 5 and 6.

They were more exciting and educative and my best teachers were Mrs. Fakoya, Mrs. Olawale, Mr. Fadare, Mr. Pitt and Mr. Babaniyi.

My stay in primary school was fabulous and I will miss every one in Sunnydale!

I can't believe my stay at primary school is over. I started in Playgroup where Mrs.Umoh was my teacher. We never really did anything other than colour, play, eat and sleep.

Then I moved to other classes and now I'm in

Year Six. Sunnydale School is the best! I'm off to Dansol High School.

Name: Saratu Danladi Lalas

Age: 10 years

School: Premiere Academy Lubge

Sunnydale School is a great school. It has helped children like me to be diligent. I am now leaving Sunnydale School.

I started Sunnydale in 2005 in

Year One. My teacher was Miss Yinusa.

Everything was new to me. Then we closed at 2.30 pm. Everyone was strange to me. I moved on to Year Two and faced slightly greater challenges. Now I'm in Year Six where I am having a marvelous time.

I'll miss Sunnydale School.

I can't believe I am out of primary school now.

It's just like yesterday! Time really flies! I can remember all what happened during my primary school years from Playgroup to Year Six, and now I am going to secondary school. I'll really miss Sunnydale School. I want to appreciate all the values that the school has taught me. I especially want to thank the best director,

Mrs. Osisanya for doing a great job. I thank her care over the school. I thank God for all the teachers in this school. I am proud of them.

Wow! What a breath-taking experience! How time flies! It feels just like yesterday when I came to Sunnydale School. I came to this school in the year 2004. I was in Year 1. There I met 8 special people instead of 9, because the 9th person came in Year 3. Now, I have met the 10th special person- Mrs. Fakoya, my Year 6 teacher. I will miss all my teachers and other staff. I will also miss the Director, Mrs. Osisanya.

Adieu, Sunnydale!!

I'm off to Trinity International College.-

WOW! I can't believe that I am going to secondary school. It was just like yesterday when I was in the Playgroup, now I am in Year Six, and it is already time for me to leave Sunnydale School. I am going to experience new things and I know I am going to do well, because Sunnydale School has helped me a lot, and most of all I am going to miss Mr. Jacob Ashaolu of blessed memory.

I am going to Vivian Fowler Memorial College which is a good school and an all girls school.

Tick, tock, time is up really! Yet I don't feel like leaving but I must leave. I will never forget this school because of my wonderful teachers. My best teachers are Mrs. Fakoya, Mr. Fadare, Mr. Babaniyi, Mr. Pitt, and Monsieur Pat. I dedicate the poem below to my wonderful teacher, Mrs. Fakoya.

F = Funny

A = Adorable

K = Kind

O = Outstanding

Y = Young

A = Amiable

I will never forget also, Late Mr. Jacob hmmm.... Now I am off to either Caleb International College or Muritala Mohammed International Airport Secondary School.

I will miss you my friends.

This is a dream! My 3 fabulous years in Sunnydale is over.

First, in year 4 with Mrs. Duru as my class teacher. Then in Year 5 we had Mrs. Olawale who made the class so fun

by giving us nicknames.

Lastly, came Year 6 Sapphire with our “SUPERCALIFRAGILISTICESPIALIDOCIOUS” Mrs. Fakoya.

I'll never forget the 3 exciting years I spent in Sunnydale!

Life moves on and I'm getting older and more mature to;

getting less playful and more serious also. After many years in the primary school, I have to move on. Ahead of me lie many steps to take and hurdles to cross. I'll meet new people, new life, new friends and new methods. I've achieved what I have to achieve in primary school. I'll

Start anew life in Chrisland secondary Schools.

I'll miss you all!

CONGRATULATIONS

Sapphires come in many hues and shades, and just like the gem itself, these 10 sapphires are of varied disposition.

Frankly, I had never had them this young; when I got the class list and saw there were only 2 boys, I was overjoyed.

“What a serene class”, I thought.

Little did I know what these gems had in store for me; my girls were even fiercer than the boys, and quite a handful.

I'm better off from the experience and I'm reminded of Rene Descartes' words: “It is not enough to have a good mind. The main thing is to use it well.”

Keep on shining!

PRIVILEGE

All thanks to God for bringing us to the end of another session. The journey is special in the sense that both the pupils and their teachers are highly fulfilled.

If teaching is about imparting and impacting, about building lives positively, then I am privileged. In the course of the session, while teaching, I have heard myself and my colleagues addressing my pupils as Dr. Mohammed, Barr. Manya, Engr. Toyin, Prof. Tiwa, Ambass. 'Derin, and so on. Words are powerful, and that is why I am sure that these will explore and do exploits in various fields.

Another session of sowing into lives has just ended. I am grateful to the Almighty for giving the privilege to be part of the "farmers-on-board".

The Freesians are an epitome of beauty. Our colours (olive, white and yellow) combine impeccably to give our terrain such spotless beauty that catches the eyes.

And everyday, this beauty settles us into the coach of learning and zooms us into the real world. And so we explore, traverse, and unravel; we stop at nothing until our thirst for borderless knowledge is totally satisfied. Indeed, we are the FREESIANS.

Please come along with us as we take a big peek into the mysteries of the Ancient World. You might never know that you don't know; until you come to know with us. This voyage will be both exhilarating and educative. Afterwards, log onto our world wide web; info.freesia.net for more mind blowing information. Come along and catch some fun.

In 3 Tan we've been able to explore the context of today's learner, to consider competence and competencies.

As we all know that knowledge without skills is limited, our class community has imparted us with time management skill, leadership skill, healthy rivalry and problem-solving skill.

Our performance, we boldly say, is an epitome of excellence.

We thank God for our parents for their support, our school management and we appreciate ourselves for relentless effort.

All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things bright and wonderful, the Lord God made them all ... goes a popular hymn.

Looking back at my precious children, I can't but wonder at God's marvellous creation. Working with them has been fun and worth the time.

In our quest for knowledge, we explored our Botanical World and made wonderful discoveries ranging from the origin of plants, needs of plants, plants growth sites, ornamental plants, edible plants, medicinal plants as well as varieties of plants.

Just as most plants emerge from seeds and grow to become useful to man, we in Year 2 Topaz have also undergone tremendous growth and have become what we are today: poised, mature, confident and like ornamental plants, ready to beautify and make a positive impact on our world.

So long!

How days go by! It was just like yesterday when these nestlings toddled into "Opal's World" without wings.

They were so surprised to see me as I was to see them. Shortly, we became knitted and knotted; we learnt together, worked together, laughed and played together.

How fast they have grown, like eagles they have chosen to soar and with love I have let them loose.

How much will I miss them! So much.

When a seed is planted, it germinates and sprouts. In time, there's a blossoming and the bud is opened. Out of this bud springs forth beautiful life which comes in pretty colours, and sweet fragrance to refresh the air.

We may be small seeds, but we are the hope of tomorrow, a class of great potential in diverse areas, and we are working towards affecting our generation positively by shaking the world with great ideas.

How time flies! Another year has rolled by. The beginning of this session with these lovely bunches was tricky and challenging, but change has always been the only constant thing in life. Of a truth, their transformation was amazing.

I cherish these young minds and their various efforts to get the target right. It was great working with them! It was an interesting and educative year for all of us in Reception Amber. We learnt to work together as a team, and we worked with the slogan "one for all and all for one!"

Bravo, Angels! Our team-work paid off! Remember it's not just "all about me" but "all about us".

Wonders never end, they creep through our tinniest imaginations and leave us smiling as we do when we see blossoming flowers in spring sssssssspring; beautiful fragrance that entice all the beautiful "birds everywhere"

Just a glimpse of their flying wings,

We raise our hopes to fly so high, because we believe...we can fly!

Trees everywhere.

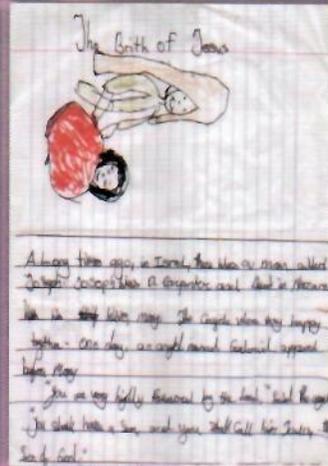

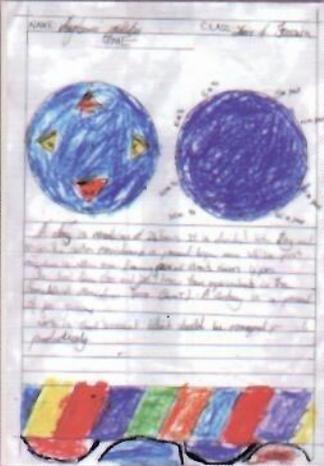

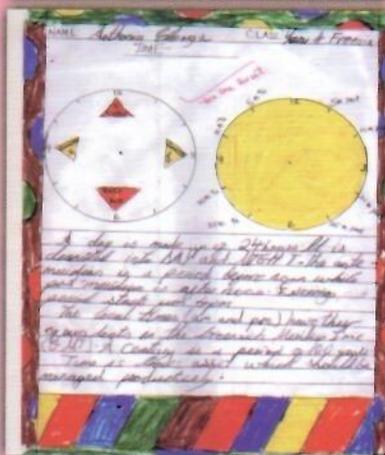

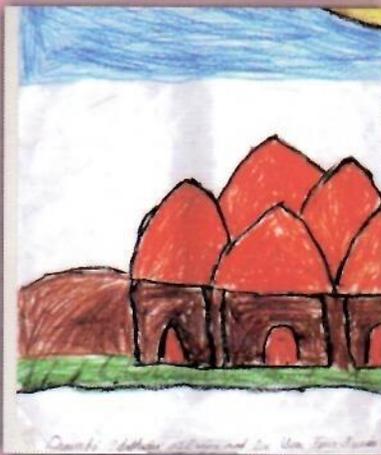

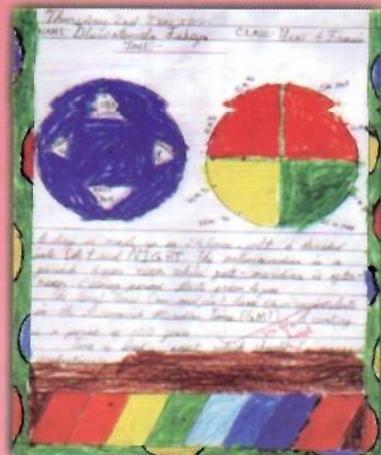

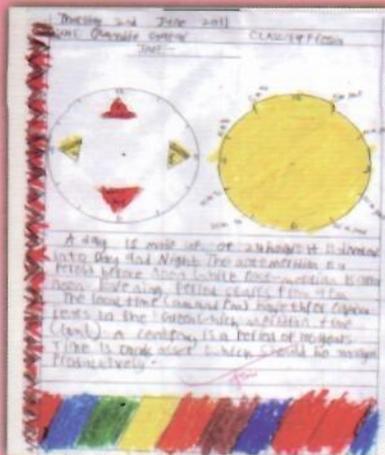

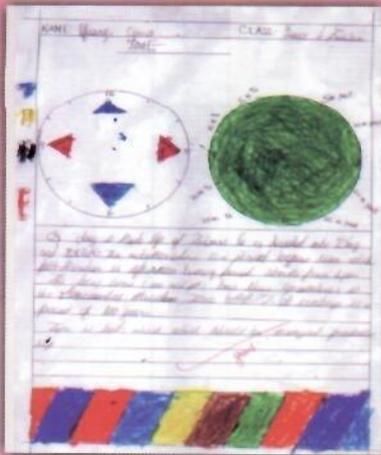

What would the world have been like without plants everywhere?

For our daily food and fruits,
For our beautiful furniture,
For clothes to cover our nakedness,
For flowers to beautify our environment,
For natural ventilation,
And a lot more.

With love,

Wow! Our world rhymes when it's numeracy time. We tune our musical instrument to - "This old man, he played one..."

Then Annie Apple sneaks in, we gyrate with her as we say our letter sounds- "Annie's Apple, she says 'a'".

Thereafter, we eat and brush our teeth in style with Barney's:

Oh! I'm brushing my teeth from the top, it's so much fun...

It's indeed fun! Fun!! Fun!!!

We sing, we laugh, we dance, we play, we learn. Our world is built around music as we forge ahead each day with bold little steps. Sing and sail with us through our world of rhymes.

My gush! It's been a breath taking session with my big little angels.

Learning in playgroup is so much fun. It's quite interesting the way we sound our letters, count our numbers, paste lots of colourful objects, sing our rhymes while climbing the stairs and exploring our world of different colours.

Red is a bright colour which is very prominent in our environment. We have discovered our red world red chairs, cups, combs, bags, socks, shoes, dresses, plates, balloons, toys, rose flowers, etc.

We also eat fruit like strawberries, apples, cherries and lots more.

School PLEK

School is a place to play,
Where you can watch things
Happen in the sun
And have some fun.

When you get to school in the morning,
You see all kinds of things,
But you're not alone,
You're with your friends,
And you're all together,
That's the best of school.

The Unknown Room

There was a room called 'The Unknown'
The bottom of the room was empty
The door was left open all day long
But no one knew why the door was open.

They were always out there,
They were not there, they were not there,
They were not there, they were not there,
They were not there, they were not there.

Everyone thought who was there
Told it to the man who told it to the man
The man who told it to the man

Admirable Night Strife
When there is a tragic bliss and Each one of the dead become with the dangerous wizards
The streets are all quiet and dark
The sound of evil like a demoniac throb.

When the light makes lot of sound and tranches
The night has stroke for the deadly weather
Each of the dead arise
from the ground
By that time all men had
-are not brass.

My poem

A dog which pecks all the time,
Not which loves a lot of things,
Kangaroo is animal that pecks everything
Gomella which loves to play for the day

I early is a really great show
Because it makes me run
It is super funny,
That makes me feel like a bunny

My dog is always dirty,
And can make me thirsty,
He likes to eat from trash,
That can give me a rash.

Writing by Delapo Karuna

Tom heard a hiss and had to say
That he must see the day

The cat was almost gone to play
But he might as well say

"The monster was getting mad"
And the cat was sad

I have had enough said Tom
And I hope it did not eat my mom

Tom rushed in disgrace
And said he will never make a mistake

He was distressed by a point
And people thought it was a foal

Chisom Eneli

Who stole it?

My mom came back with a tasty meal
And no one could guess how it made me feel
I couldn't wait to take a bit
Plus no one could see me eating it

It was still there eating more
And what could my sister do she was only four
It took more of what my mom bought
Then she came back and it was caught
